Rural Business Development Grant	The Rural Business Development Grant program provides funding designed to support targeted technical assistance, training, and other activities leading to the development or expansion of small and emerging private businesses in rural areas that have fewer than 50 new employees and less than $1 million in gross revenues. Programmatic activities are separated into enterprise or opportunity type grant activities.	Applications made to USDA Rural Development State Office	Currently Closed		Annual
Rural Community Development Initiative Grant	RCDI grants are awarded to help non-profit housing and community development organizations, low-income rural communities and federally recognized tribes support housing, community facilities and community and economic development projects in rural areas. Broadband-related planning is an eligible activity.				Annual
Business and Industry Guaranteed Loan Program	The Business and Industry program bolsters the availability of private credit by guaranteeing loans made by lenders to rural businesses. This program improves the economic health of rural communities by increasing access to business capital through loan guarantees that enable commercial lenders to provide affordable financing for businesses in eligible rural areas.	Applications are accepted from lenders on an on-going basis. Broadband infrastructure deployment is eligible program purpose. Eligible recipients include: libraries, higher education, state, local, and tribal governments, public safety entities, healthcare facilities, for-profit and non-profit organizations, electric utilities/co-ops.			Applications are accepted from lenders on an on-going basis.

NTIA - IJA Broadband Infrastructure Program - (Comprised of program allocations below)					$65 Billion Total
Broadband Equity, Access, Deployment (BEAD)	Utilize for broadband deployment, mapping, and adoption projects. Each state, D.C., and P.R. will receive an initial allocation of $100 million to support planning efforts including building capacity in state broadband offices and outreach and coordination with local communities.	States, territories, D.C., and P.R., leveraging initial planning funds that will be made available through the program, will submit a 5-year action plan, which shall be informed by collaboration with local and regional entities. The remaining funding will be distributed based on a formula that considers the number of unserved and high-cost locations in the state, based on the maps to be published by the FCC in 2022. The first priority for funding is for providing broadband to unserved areas (those below 25/3 Mbps), followed by underserved areas (those below 100/20 Mbps), and then serving community anchor institutions (1/1 Gbps).			$42.45 Billion

E-Rate Program	The schools and libraries universal service support program, commonly known as the E-rate program, helps schools and libraries to obtain affordable broadband.	Eligible schools, school districts and libraries may apply individually or as part of a consortium. Funding may be requested under two categories of service: category one services to a school or library (telecommunications, telecommunications services and Internet access), and category two services that deliver Internet access within schools and libraries (internal connections, basic maintenance of internal connections, and managed internal broadband services). Discounts for support depend on the level of poverty and whether the school or library is located in an urban or rural area. The discounts range from 20 percent to 90 percent of the costs of eligible services.			Funding year application filing window: January 15 - March 25.

Affordable Connectivity Program	The Affordable Connectivity Program is a Federal Communications Division benefit program that helps ensure that households can afford the broadband they need for work, school, healthcare and more.	The benefit provides a discount of up to $30 per month toward internet service for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands. Eligible households can also receive a one-time discount of up to $100 to purchase a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet from participating providers if they contribute more than $10 and less than $50 toward the purchase price.			Total allocation - $3.2 Billion. The EBB Program will conclude when the fund is expended or six months after the end of the public health emergency.
Rural Digital Opportunity Fund - II	The Rural Digital Opportunity Fund is the Commission’s next step in bridging the digital divide to efficiently fund the deployment of broadband networks in rural America. Through a two-phase reverse auction mechanism, the FCC will direct up to $20.4 billion over ten years to finance up to gigabit speed broadband networks in unserved rural areas, connecting millions of American homes and businesses to digital opportunity.	The RDOF Phase I auction was held November 2020 and awarded $9+ billion in project funding in census blocks that are entirely unserved by voice and broadband with speeds of at least 25/3 Mbps. Phase II will consist of $11+ billion in funding to cover locations in census blocks that are partially served, as well as locations not funded in Phase I.			$11+ Billion - Auction expected in 2022. Amount may be higher due to unused RDOF Phase 1 awards (funds returned due to incomplete applications by Phase 1 awardees).
